

Rivierans Give More Than $1600 to Marching Mothers

By MARY WEBB
FR 5-3051

In response to the many questions received on the results of the Mothers March in Riviera, this column is happy to report our mothers did a bang-up job. Mrs. Ross Dorsett, chairman of the Riviera March, reported this also announced plans for a St. Patrick's Day dance. Cecil Garriot, a former Los Angeles Angel star, was guest speaker and gave a down-to-earth picture of a growing boy's progress in life, emphasizing sports and Little League activities as one of the important school in her name. It is hoped that the presentation of a book to the nursery school in the name of the outgoing president will become a regular custom. For information about the nursery school, which is a non-profit cooperative organization under the Adult Education Division of the Torrance Unified School District, call Mrs. Ben Russell, FRontier 5-1829.

THCA Plans Valentines' Festivities

All residents of Torrance Knolls, new and old Weston and Pacific Hills tracts are invited to a Valentine party, sponsored by the Torrance Hills Civic Assn. will be held Saturday, at 8 p.m. Nickle Ranch, at 3100 Newton St., just off Pacific Coast Highway, will be the site of the party. All members of the civic association will be admitted free of charge. Admission for non-members will be $2 per couple, which entitles them to membership in the association. Prizes, dancing and a smorgasbord will make up the evening's entertainment. For further information, call C. A. Hildebrand at DA 6-2973.

Plan Street Improvement

Special assessment proceedings leading to improvements on 172nd St. and others in the Lawndale area were instituted this week by the county board of supervisors, according to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn. As petitioned for, the project will consist of construction of curbs, gutters, walks and pavement on 171st, 172nd and 173rd between Ingleswood Ave. and Hawthorne Blvd., and on Firmona and Grevillea between 171st and Redondo Beach Blvd., Supervisor Hahn said.
